MIDWAY ROAD

Jade Hunter – Fleet Road, by Magesterial

A track-record-breaking multiple graded stakes winner, who was also classic-placed, Midway Road is by a Horse of the Year siring son of Mr. Prospector. With his first crop, he is a top five Texas sire of two-year-olds and a leading freshman sire.

Like the highly successful sires Kingmambo, Distorted Humor, Elusive Quality, Grand Slam, Thunder Gulch, and Smoke Glacken (out of a mare by Midway Road's broodmare sire Magesterial), Midway Road is a product of the Mr. Prospector/Northern Dancer cross. All of these stallions have done well when bred back to Northern Dancer line stallions, and Midway Road should also be suited by that cross. His sire, Jade Hunter, has done particularly well with Northern Dancer via Nijinsky II and his sons, a cross which has credited him with two grade one winners and a total of eight stakes winners (with Strawberry Road looking a particularly good branch); and has also sired graded stakes winners out of mares descending from Northern Dancer via Danzig (out of a mare by Danzig's son Chief's Crown); Storm Bird (sire of Storm Cat and Summer Squall); Deputy Minister, Sovereign Dancer and Herat.

Midway Road's sire, Jade Hunter, has two stakes winners, one grade one, out of mares by Tyrant, a son of Bold Ruler, and he also has stakes winners out of mares by Bold Ruler line stallions Seattle Slew, Secretariat and Foolish Pleasure. Secretariat and Foolish Pleasure's sire, What a Pleasure, should both be particularly good here. Midway Road's broodmare sire, Magesterial, is out of a mare by Bold Lad, a three-quarters genetic relative to Secretariat, and three-parts brother to What a Pleasure. This section of the pedigree should also work with any Bold Ruler/Princequillo, Nasrullah/Princequillo or Princequillo/Nasrullah cross. Midway Road's sire has also sired a stakes winner out of a mare by the Nasrullah/Princequillo horse Quack.

Jade Hunter has two stakes winners, one a grade one, out of mares by Halo, and a graded stakes winner out of a mare by Halo's son Devil's Bag (a brother to Saint Ballado). There is also a grade one winner by a son of Jade Hunter, out of a mare from the sire line of Roberto, like Halo, a son of Hail to Reason. From the Sir Gaylord/Sir Ivor branch of the sire line coming down from Hail to Reason's sire, Turn-to, Jade Hunter has a stakes winner out of a mare by Bates Motel. There are also multiple Jade Hunter stakes winners out of dams from the Ribot line, descending from Graustark (via Key to the Mint), his brother His Majesty (via Cormorant) and Tom Rolfe, via Hoist the Flag/Alleged.

Jade Hunter's Horse of the Year and three-time Eclipse Award winner Azeri is out of a mare by the European sire Ahonoora, and Jade Hunter also has stakes winners out of mares by Broad Brush, Al Hattab and Sharpen Up. It also appears that this pedigree will like Buckpasser and other horses bringing in the War Admiral/La Troienne cross.
